

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Royster's fertilizers, the right price, at Moss & Ansel's.—Adv.

—Hunters', at Seneca, have received their new spring suits and invite inspection. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

—Pretty line of dry goods. Norman's Dry Goods Store.—Adv.

—Mrs. Jay W. Hutchison left Monday morning for Atlanta, where she will be for several days this week selecting her stock of millinery and notions for the spring season.

—We always have on hand a large stock of finished monuments of all kinds. Visit our show room. Seneca Marble and Granite Works, Seneca, S. C.—Adv.

—W. P. Nimmons, of Seneca, announces receipt of his large shoe stock for the present season, prominent in which are the popular oxfords and low cuts. He carries also a large stock of dry goods and general merchandise. Wagons and buggies are given special attention. See advertisement elsewhere.

—I will return this week from Atlanta with a splendid selection of millinery, trimming materials, ribbons, etc. Will be pleased to have my patrons and friends call and inspect my stock. Mrs. Jay W. Hutchison, Milliner, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Married, at the home of David S. Leroy, on Sunday, March 5th, Miss Naney Bearden and Lemuel L. Leroy. The contracting parties are both of Oconee. The ceremony was performed by A. A. McMahon. There are many friends of the couple who will join with The Courier in extending congratulations and good wishes.

—For Sale—Pair small mules, for cash or good paper; or will trade for cattle. See mules at my residence, Walhalla. Jas. H. Darby, ad.

—Last Saturday there was a school election held in Damascus District, No. 61, on the question of levying an extra 3 mills tax for school purposes. The vote was a very light one, only 12 having cast their ballots. Of these, however, 10 were for the extra levy, and only two against it. The Damascus district will hereafter have better school advantages.

—Notice.—I will thresh cane seed Saturday, March 18th and 25th. This winds up cane seed threshing for this season. M. S. Carroll, Westminster, R. P. D. No. 2.—Adv. 12.

—Lawrence K. Vezin, of New York, spent Saturday and Sunday in Walhalla as the guest of R. T. Jaynes, Esq. Mr. Vezin is a member of the firm of Henchman, Vezin & Co., who are selling agents for the Hetrick Hosiery Mills. Mr. Vezin was very much pleased with Walhalla and the Hetrick manufacturing plant.

—The best is none too good for my customers; therefore I select the best. Call and examine stock and let me show you the newest and best in millinery. Mrs. Jay W. Hutchison, Milliner, Walhalla.—Adv.

—C. F. Hetrick spent the latter part of last week and the first of this week in Philadelphia on matters of business connected with the Hetrick Hosiery Mill. We understand he is looking after the matter of dyes, the situation now, owing to the war in Europe, being a very grave one, many of the dyes used in the manufacture of hosiery being almost impossible to get.

—Moss & Ansel will have their expert tailor at their store Tuesday and Wednesday, March 14 and 15. If you want something nice and substantial, call and inspect this line.—Adv.

—Representative Jas. H. Brown was in Walhalla the first of the week attending court and meeting his many friends. There are in all parts of the county many who will be glad to learn that Mr. Brown will make the race for re-election to the House in the summer campaign. Mr. Brown will stand on his record, which he hopes has met the approval of his constituents, and so far, judging by expressions made, he feels confident that his work in the House has been acceptable in large measure.

—Men's and boys' clothes at Norman's Dry Goods Store.—Adv.

—The second quarterly conference of the Walhalla Circuit of the Wesleyan Methodist church will be held at Mountain View church next Saturday night.

—The Columbia styles at our store March 14-15 in men's tailoring. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mrs. Rosa Fahnstock returned to Walhalla last week after having spent some weeks in Johns-Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, where she was under the care of specialists. Her many friends will be glad to know that her health is greatly improved.

—Melting sweet peas are better than fresh garden peas; 20c, the can. Try a can—it will convince you. Cash Grocery Co.—Adv.

—The Priscilla Club met with Miss Julia Maxwell on February 29. After an hour spent very pleasantly in work and chat a delicious salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. H. Humphries. Mrs. J. W. Bell and Mrs. H. R. Hughes were visitors. The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. E. Rhodes on Tuesday, March 14th.

—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.-tf.

—John J. Reeder, the one-term candidate for Sheriff, has a new ad. in this issue. Your attention is invited to it.

—Nobby line shoes and slippers at Norman's Dry Goods Store.—Adv.

—Mrs. R. L. Rogers and daughter, Miss Carolyn, left this morning for Fountain Inn, where they will spend some days among relatives and friends.

—Castro pimentoes, Premier salad dressing, Tuna fish. Cash Grocery Co., Walhalla.—Adv.

—There will be an important meeting of the Methodist Guild tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. D. Moss.

—See us for feed stuff, flour and heavy groceries. We will make prices interesting. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Attention is directed to Ordinance Number 2, which is published in this issue. The local authorities have decided to put a strict enforcement on the provisions of this ordinance, and it is republished in order that all may familiarize themselves with its provisions and avoid running counter to it.

—Corn for sale. J. H. Darby, Walhalla.—Adv. 11.

—J. A. Horton, of Belton, is in Walhalla to-day. Mr. Horton is pleasantly remembered by many Oconeeans as one of the candidates for a seat in Congress from the Third South Carolina District two years ago. Mr. Horton is in the field again, and is mingling among the people of Oconee at the Court House. He has many friends here and elsewhere over the county.

—J. W. Vissage, the shoe repairer, is back at the old Sweeney stand, on Main street. He will be glad to have his old customers call on him when in need of shoe or harness repairing. His prices are reasonable, and he uses only the best leathers, making his purchases of this material direct from the wholesalers.—Adv.

—J. C. Shockley, of West Union, comes to the front this week with his announcement as a candidate for Sheriff of Oconee. It is not necessary for The Courier to introduce Mr. Shockley to the people of Oconee. There is probably no more widely known man in the county for his lumber and timber business for many years has taken him to every nook and corner of the county.

—Our expert clothing man from Kahn Brothers, of Louisville and Chicago, will be at our store next Monday, March 13. Don't miss seeing him if you want the right thing in clothing. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Rev. H. A. Whitten is conducting a revival this week in the mill village. He is being most ably assisted by the Rev. Gabe Smith, of Newberry, one of God's noblemen. The public is most cordially invited to attend each service. There will not be any preaching at Zion by the pastor at 11 o'clock, but Rev. Mr. Smith will preach at 4 o'clock. Let all interested note the change in the hour.

—Tugalo Tribune: Rev. E. L. Sisk, a veteran Baptist minister, died at his home in Elberton, Ga., on February 25th. He was 84 years old. Mr. Sisk was a native of this county, and his death will bring regret to many who knew him so well. At one time he resided in Westminster. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Fannie Phillips, a daughter of the late George W. Phillips, and a sister of Jas. E. Phillips. He moved to Georgia 33 years ago. Mr. Sisk had been in the ministry about 55 years. He frequently made trips back to this section and assisted in revival meetings. Last summer he preached a number of times at the First Baptist church. A good man has gone to his reward.

—Have just gotten in half car of Tennessee brand horses and mares; all well broke. See E. C. Marett, at Oil Mill, Westminster. Our guarantee means something.—Adv. 10.

—The Young Men's League enjoyed two splendid meetings recently—one last Sunday evening, when a special program was rendered by the young men and addresses made by several of the pastors of the town. It was a thoroughly enjoyable occasion, and the young gentlemen who held places on the program proved to the public the wisdom of the organization and maintenance of the young men's association. The audience was not only pleased and edified, but most agreeably surprised at the accomplishments of the young gentlemen. On Monday last a reception and banquet was tendered the members of the organization in the Sunday school rooms of the Baptist church. The occasion was greatly enjoyed, and the ladies of the different churches who prepared and served the supper have the deepest gratitude of the members of the Young Men's League.

—Our stock of low shoes is now complete—Star Brand and Queen Quality. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, ad.

—Information reached Walhalla last Saturday of the death of W. B. Loehr, of Atlanta, who several years ago, with his family, made his home in Walhalla. No statement is made as to the cause of Mr. Loehr's death. Mr. Loehr was a printer by trade, and for some time was engaged here as publisher of the Oconee News. He had many friends in Walhalla, who will learn with deep regret of his passing away. He is survived by his wife and several children, to whom will go out the sincere sympathy of their many friends here. Mr. Loehr died Thursday morning last at 3.30 o'clock, and his body was taken to Ma. Ga., for interment. The deceased was a good man, and an earnest worker in the church, and was a member of the Methodist denomination. He was about 55 or 60 years of age. The Courier joins with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

—Have just gotten in half car of Tennessee brand horses and mares; all well broke. See E. C. Marett, at Oil Mill, Westminster. Our guarantee means something.—Adv. 10.

—Florence wickless oil stoves at Moss & Ansel's, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Dr. John G. Law will preach at Bethel next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

—New spring hats for ladies, children, men and boys received at Norman's Dry Goods Store.—Adv.

—All interested in the Sunday school at Bethel church are urged to meet there on the morning of the 12th at 10 o'clock to reorganize the Sunday school. Rev. John G. Law will preach at 11 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

—Cabbage plants every week at O. H. Schumacher's.—Adv. 17.

—Eggs—Pure R. I. Reds; 50c. for setting of 15. Mrs. J. D. Isbell, Walhalla.—Adv. 10*

—Albert S. Fant, of Belton, is in Walhalla to-day, mixing and mingling among Oconee people in attendance upon court. Mr. Fant is a candidate for Railroad Commissioner—the only one so far from the Piedmont section. He is a pleasant gentleman, and is making many friends among our people.

—Stoves and ranges on easy terms by Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.—Adv.

—See our house dresses and waists and middie blouses. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—Walhalla has had to-day, up to 10 o'clock, cloudy weather with a slight drizzle of rain; a cold, stiff wind, alternated with moderate temperature and sunshine, the whole interspersed with gusts of snow. The North Carolina mountains visible here are snow-capped this morning, this accounting for the chilly blasts from the west and north.

—We will have our big spring opening of fine tailoring Tuesday and Wednesday, March 14-15. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Have just gotten in half car of Tennessee brand horses and mares; all well broke. See E. C. Marett, at Oil Mill, Westminster. Our guarantee means something.—Adv. 10.

—Revival services will be held at Mountain View church, near Salem, commencing next Sunday morning, March 12th. The pastor, Rev. L. H. Kelley, will be assisted by Rev. J. R. George, evangelist. Services will continue for a week or ten days and perhaps longer. Everybody is invited to this revival and to assist with their prayers and presence.

—Fresh Fish! Will receive them this week sure. Cash Grocery Co.—Adv.

—Next Monday, March 13th, you will have another opportunity to secure the right kind of clothing at the right kind of prices; measured accurately and fit correctly; quick service; satisfaction guaranteed. Be sure to call at our store Monday next. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—At the ordination service to-night, at which time Richard W. Grubbs will be installed as deacon of the Baptist church, Rev. T. M. Galphin, pastor of the Seneca Baptist church, will preach the sermon. Rev. Mr. Galphin is a preacher of ability, and it is expected that the congregation will hear something exceptionally good.

—Another new lot of dry goods this week at Norman's.—Adv.

—For Saturday Only! Ten yards Androsoggin bleaching, 85c. Only ten yards to each family. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—News reached Walhalla yesterday of the death of an infant of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, who live at Oakway. The child died Monday night of pneumonia. This death comes as a special sorrow to the parents by reason of the fact that only two weeks ago they lost another child, a few years older than the one that has just died, it also being a victim of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

—Norman's Dry Goods Store for newest dry goods.—Adv.

—First class Peerless engine and shingle mill for sale. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla.—Adv. 11.

—Last week several land deals were made in Walhalla, by which the lot at the corner of College and Main streets, owned heretofore by parties in Greenville, has come into possession of four parties residing in Walhalla. The corner section, 26 feet on Main street by 210 on College street, has been transferred to J. Arthur Moody, a similar sized lot adjoining east to Ralph C. Carter, the next to W. A. Grant and the fourth lot to Francis Hughes. Mr. Moody sold his two-acre lot up-town (the old Cobb property) to James M. Moss.

—For shoes and clothing go to Norman's Dry Goods Store.—Adv.

—For Sale—Eggs from purebred Silver Laced Wyandottes. 50c. per setting. Mrs. John M. Moody, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv. 10*

—Several changes in residence have been made during the past week on Faculty Hill. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peters have vacated the Fahnstock residence on Mauldin street and are now boarding with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hetrick, just across the street. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will move to Philadelphia the first of April. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker have moved from the VanDiver cottage on Tugalo street to the residence vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Peters, and Mrs. Nellie Moore and daughter have taken up their residence in the VanDiver cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Peters have many friends who will regret their removal from Walhalla.

—Clean bottles wanted at Norman's drug store.—Adv.

—Nice line tooth preparations, brushes, talcum and face powders, soaps, hair brushes, combs. Norman's, Walhalla.—Adv.

—There was quite a little fire scare in Walhalla last Monday morning about 12.40 o'clock, when a blaze was discovered in the basement of Norman's Lower Store, Main street. Fortunately in the early stages of the blaze the reflection was noticed by James C. Seaborn, who happened to be passing, and he gave the alarm, the fire being quickly extinguished. There is no doubt the blaze was of incendiary origin, as pieces of box lumber had been cut in small pieces and stuck through a ventilator in the brick wall onto the basement steps under the store. The boards were only catching up good when the fire was discovered. No damage. As Mr. Seaborn approached the place of the fire he reports having seen a man running in the direction of Pitchford's gin.

—Pretty new line stationery just received. Norman's drug store. ad.

—At Moss & Ansel's you will find a man that can fit you in your spring and summer suit that you will not be ashamed of. Tuesday and Wednesday, March 14th and 15th.—Adv.

—The dead body of James Reed, colored, was found last Friday lying near the roadside not far from the Fairview church. The old darkey had been dead presumably for a week. On the Thursday preceding the finding of his body, Reed had been seen by several persons, and it is stated that at that time he was drinking quite heavily and was wandering about, apparently lost, endeavoring to get home. A white man who knew him well took charge of him, piloting him into plain sight of the darkey's home, going with him almost there, and asking him if he could make it to his home. The white man was thanked for his service and told that he (Reed) would get home all right. However, it seems that Reed became muddled again, taking a road almost in an opposite direction, getting a long distance from his home again, and it is supposed that he laid down to rest or became totally helpless. The place where he laid down is quite out-of-the-way, and it was not until Friday morning, a week and a day from the time Reed was last seen, that his body was found. Foul play is not suspected at all, as there were no marks about the body. It is presumed that death came as a result of intoxication and exposure during the night. His wife stated that Reed had $10.50 when he left home, and examination of his pockets showed that they contained exactly $10.51 when the body was found. Inquiry was made by Rural Policeman J. H. Thomas, and the finding was to the effect that the deceased came to his death in the manner as reported above. Reed was a well-to-do darkey, well known and highly respected in his community. Every white man who knew him, it is stated, was his friend, and by his honesty and honorable dealings with all he was ever able to get any accommodation sought from his white neighbors.

—You are especially invited to visit our store March 14-15 and inspect our line of tailoring. Let the man from the house show you. Moss & Ansel.—Adv.

SWIFT'S

High Grade Fertilizers,

Ammoniated With Blood, Bone and Tankage from Their Stock Yards.

BEST BY TEST--TESTED BY THE BEST

Made Famous by Their Famous Results. Make a Fertilizer Investment ---Not a Fertilizer Experiment.

Wherever fertilizers are used SWIFT'S FERTILIZER and FERTILIZER MATERIALS are known as the acme of perfection in plant food carriers, assuring an absolute satisfaction without costly experimenting, which so often results in failure.

Swift's name on you fertilizer package is crop assurance. So many Swift customers insist they get 15 to 50 pounds more lint cotton per acre than from the next best brand. Fifteen pounds more cotton per acre equals $9.00 per ton saved in fertilizers used. Thus:

Fifteen pounds more cotton per acre, at 12c., equals $1.80. 1 ton fertilizer covers 5 acres, equals $9.00 saved per ton, and more than this when less than 400 pounds fertilizers are used. Figure it out yourself and use Swift's Red Steer Animal Ammoniated Fertilizers.
